

NIEK VAN DEN ADEL

Speaker, Inspirator, Best-Selling Author,
Netherlands

I AM SPEAKING AT:

April 28th | 1:30 pm CET

2021 | IPMA GLOBAL
BEST PRACTICE WEEK
ONLINE EVENT

Niek van den Adel is a much sought-after speaker at home and abroad. His agenda is filled every week with requests about personal leadership, resilience, customer focus, inspiration and care. His motto: happiness is a choice. In 2015 he wrote his first bestselling book, “Crash” (also translated into English). Recently the book “Put the patient on 2 – better care starts with yourself”.

During his Keynote speech, he always makes use of his own experiences with a smile and a tear. An inspiring story with lessons from his professional and personal life on how to deal with change. How do you develop resilience, so that you become more resilient to change and go through life agile?

Niek takes his audience on a journey you will never forget. How do you (re) find your purpose when you lose everything? How can you still achieve all your dreams although life seems to work against you? In this Inspiring Keynote Niek will share his lessons on resilience, which he believes, might also be the formula for a fulfilled and happy life. There's no question about it; you will feel motivated and inspired by this storyteller.